

Elevation Station

An original song, written by Japa Kaur

When the darkness is so strong
That I don't want to carry on I reach out to a force beyond
To sing through me a healing song

Letting go of what ain't cool
This gas tank needs some better fuel
Divine presence coming through
To let this heart bloom

Elevation station
This is a co-creation
Divine collaboration
Raising the vibration

A sacred constellation
To upgrade the sensation
True illumination
It's a celebration

Chorus:

Waheguru

Waheguru

Waheguru

Waheguru

From the darkness to the light

Letting go of what we know ain't right

Gratitude for every bite

Loving everything in sight

Indescribable ecstasy

Allowing it to flow through me

Clearing blocks for energy to Rise to the top, in a symphony...with divinity

Waheguru

Waheguru

Waheguru

Waheguru

Bridge:

Your perfect, perfect

the way you are

A shining star,

Caviar

A cookie jar,

a bumper car

A jaguar,
an old guitar

Open to more than what's been before
Unlock the door
To what's in store

The penthouse floor
The stage door
More amor
Love galore!

Chorus:

Waheguru

Waheguru

Waheguru

Waheguru

Waheguru

Waheguru

Waheguru

Waheguru
